

Know Them by Their Fruits

(Matthew 7:15–20)

Beware of false prophets Beware of the prophet who's a liar

They come clad in sheepskin but they're ravenous wolves within

By their fruits decide on their acceptance or dismissal Do you pick grapes off a briar or figs from a thistle?
A good tree gives you fruit that's sweet
A rotten tree's fruit you can't eat
No good tree gives you fruit that's brown
No rotten tree gives you fruit that's sound Don't you chop down the tree that's barren and cast it in the fire?

Based on their fruits you will know them
