

To Fulfill

(Matthew 5:17–20)

Don't think I'm here to overthrow the prophets and the law I'm here to fulfill them not undermine or kill them

I think you should know:
Till heaven and earth's cessation not a mark of punctuation shall vanish from the compilation of the law till its culmination

If you break the least commandment in heaven you'll be the least but if you teach God's great commandments you'll be honored at the Father's feast

And unless your righteousness outshines the record of your so-called saints God will bar you from his gate
